NAVAL ENGAGEMENT

JAPS ATTACK ROJESTVENSKY.

Two Battleships and Three Cruisers
Sunk by a Torpedo Boat Attack.

Washington, May 29.—The American consul at Nagasaki, Japan, cables the State Department, that the Japanese have sunk one Russian battleship and four other Russian warships, and a repair ship in the Straits of Korea.

London, May 29.—The expected encounter, and the consequent hideous loss of human life commenced in the Korean Straits on Saturday and is still in progress. The news which comes from ports near the seat of war from Japanese or sympathizers are confusing and contradictory, but, summing these up, it appears that Rojestvensky, harassed by ill-health and worried by St. Petersburg, nevertheless persisted in properly commanding his ships, and pluckily sailed forth with his fastest squadrons to battle for the mastery of the China Seas.

ADMIRALTY BULLETIN ISSUED.

London, May 29.—According to one bulletin issued by the British Admiralty, the entire fighting strength of the Baltic Fleet was seen heading for the Tiao Loo in the Straits.

The next bulletin was pregnant. It came from the U. S. consul at Nagasaki and was to the effect that the rival fleets had met. The Russians had lost two battleships, the Borodino and Orel, three cruisers and a repair ship.

RUSSIANS STILL GO NORTH.

Admiral Rojestvensky was still travelling north toward Vladivostok, pursued by the victorious Togo. Russian sympathizers say it is something for him to be still heading north, although his speed is somewhat accelerated by the Japanese. Togo was apparently unable to turn him back.

ONLY PORTION OF RUSSIAN FLEET ENGAGED.

Contrary to the British Admiralty report is one from Tsing Tsin, a German port on Shantung peninsula, to the effect that a running naval engagement took place near the island of Oki in the sea of Japan, 200 miles north of the Straits of Korea, and that the whole Russian fleet did not participate, the slower vessels having been sent some days ago around the outside coast of Japan.

JAP TORPEDO BOATS DID THE WORK.

Russian sources give no news of the battle, while the Japanese government, as customary, gives no information as to the battle or its outcome. It is learned, however, from Tokio that Admiral Rojestvensky's main fleet, steaming in two columns with the battleships on the starboard side, and the cruisers on the port with the monitors, entered the straits in a heavy sea and fog with out lights burning. They were discovered by the Japanese at 3 a.m. on the mist clearing. The Japanese forces are one cruiser and ten torpedo boats. This may account for the heavy losses in Russian warships which might not have occurred from ordinary gun fire. It is supposed the Japanese torpedo boats did the trick while heroically sacrificing themselves in the attack. Though the losses in torpedo boats seem heavy it is remarkably light compared with their opponents' dreadful list of casualties. The sister battleships Orel and Borodino weighed 13,000 tons each and each floating castle carried a regiment of men aboard.

STORY OF THE ARMADA REPEATED.

It is the old story of the Spanish Armada again fought out under modern conditions. However, it is a certainty that a portion of the Russian fleet will now reach Vladivostok, though Admiral Togo is bound to seriously cripple the main fighting ships of his adversary. That being the case Marshal Oyama will be again able to get his reinforcements and supplies and proceed to endeavor to drive the Russians out of Manchuria and lay siege to Vladivostok. Such long-drawn disaster of course will still further shake the Chinese insecure tenure, and China's look pretty black in the East.

VEGREVILLE ITEMS.

Vegreville, May 19th.—Slight showers of late have caused the delinquent crops to "brace up," the grass has at last assumed a truly emerald hue, and all nature has at last donned the verdant vestments of a smiling spring.

Mr. Clarence Abbott, north-west of town (Vegreville) has erected a handsome and commodious frame residence.

Last Sabbath at 11 a.m. the Rev. Mr. Gately preached to a large and appreciative audience in the Vermilion school house.

For the benefit of the uninformed public we may be pardoned for making a few personal remarks about our town, which we do not make in any bragging or boastful spirit but just to keep the merits of the Vermilion Valley in mind. The following gives a rough but by no means an exhaustive inventory of the business concerns in Vegreville:—4 real estate offices, 5 machine agents, 4 general stores, 1 justice of the peace, 2 notaries public, 3 clergymen, 2 restaurants, 1 bakery, 1 second-hand store, 1 candy shop, student-at-law, who graduates as full-fledged in the spring of 1906, 2 doctors, 1 skating rink, used during summer term for stage rehearsals, 2 blacksmith shops, 1 school and 1 church.

WARWICK NEWS.

Warwick, May 25.—Mr. F. Facey has the contract to build Mr. Diehl's new house on his farm near Warwick.

Mr. C. Burkholder is building a frame house on his homestead, northeast 32, 53, 14.

A few days ago Mr. Fred Leech met with a painful accident. He was discharging a gun. The breech of the gun does not seem to have been entirely closed and some of the charge struck him in the eye. As a result Mr. Leech is nearly blind and we sincerely hope he may recover his sight.

Council 27, J, 4, met in the Warwick school house on Saturday afternoon the 13th inst. Mr. D. McQuinn is chairman and Mr. E. H. Wynn Mackenzie is secretary-treasurer. The rate levied is $6 per quarter-section. Mr. F. Facey was appointed road overseer of township 54-14; Mr. G. W. Chase, of Township 54-13; Mr. G. Cochrane of 53-14, and Mr. Bazynski of 53-13.

On Wednesday, the 17th inst., a tourist from London, England, arrived at Warwick. He had been in Canada about six weeks, coming as far as Saskatoon by rail. From this place to Edmonton he was travelling on the trail. From Edmonton to the coast, thence via the Pacific to Japan, India, etc. back to London, a very interesting trip.

Arbor day was celebrated at the Warwick school by the planting of trees and flower seeds.

On May 23, Mr. Percy Lynn arrived from Edmonton with 16 road-consumers for council 27-3-4. On the same day Mr. Wm. Woods got back from Edmonton with a load of merchandise for his store in Warwick.

As Warwick has now become an objective point for tourists on their trip around the world, the travelling public will please note that our general postmaster Mr. Wm. Woods keeps a sleeping place where travellers may obtain meals, all hours and ample accommodation.

CIVIC AFFAIRS

DISCUSSED FRIDAY EVENING.

Tenders for Laying Artificial Stone
Walks Let - Fire By-Law Defeated.

A petition was received by the city council on Friday evening asking that Jasper avenue extension be graded from Boundary avenue to Government avenue and a six foot sidewalk built along each side. The commissioners were given power to build the walks, providing the petitions were properly signed.

A petition that a flight of steps be built at the southern end of McDougall street was referred back to the promoter to secure the proper signatures.

A report from the commissioners recommending that McKay avenue be graded from First to Fourth streets was not accepted and the commissioners asked to ascertain the probable cost of grading the avenue from First to Second streets.

TENDERS FOR PAVEMENT.

The commissioners reported that they had accepted the tender of W. J. Carter for constructing artificial stone walks along Jasper avenue from Fourth street to Kinsington avenue, the figure being $28,323.

TENDERS FOR ARC LIGHTS.

The commissioners also reported having accepted tenders for the installation of arc lights in the city at a cost of $2,999.25, the total, with cross arms, etc., being $5,000. The line bylaw, amendment, making the new line for frame buildings Third street, came up for a third reading and was defeated.

Mr. Greenbach was asked by the council to take charge of the bylaw relating to the pound and the water-works plant, which was discussed at length and referred back for another report.

Thought It Diphtheria.

Junius Lee Lanco: Julius, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schroeder, of the Royal hotel, died on Friday, after an illness of about a week. Two members of the board of health had information before Dr. George, the coroner, alleging that the boy's death was due to negligence. An inquest was held on Saturday, the jury being composed of Messrs. J. D. Lander (foreman), J. A. Simpson, A. Krumer, E. T. Stiles and E. J. Freim.

Dr. Crawford, being sworn, described the post mortem. His evidence was entirely technical. He stated that the larynx was covered by a membrane that could not be declared diphtheritic or not without a bacteriological examination. In reply to a juror, Dr. Crawford said he believed the boy died of diphtheria. There were no separate ulcers, but a continuous membrane.

The verdict of the jury was: "We find that Julius Schroeder came to his death through suffocation caused by obstruction of the windpipe due to a foreign membrane which we believe to be diphtheritic, according to medical testimony. The jury find that there was no culpable negligence on the part of the parents, but we do think that medical aid should have been called in during the early stages of the disease."

UNOCCUPIED TERRITORY

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U.S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the OLIVER is the very best machine made regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought in Canada for the same price at which it is sold in the U.S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

This should be a very attractive proposition to any purchaser of writing machines.

DOG TAXES

Edmonton, May, 29th, 1905.

Editor Bulletin:

Dear Sir—I desire through your columns to warn all owners of dogs that the last day for paying taxes is the 31st of May or the 1st of June, I am not sure which, but for safety sake let us say the 31st of May.

It will be found in close searching that the fact is advertised in the Bulletin, but in an obscure manner and in connection with another matter and may quite easily be overlooked, which has been the case with every one I have already warned.

I am writing this in order that dog owners may not be caught in the trap as so many were last year.

The penalty for non-payment within the minute is double tax or four dollars instead of two. If you are late do not expect any mercy or attempt to explain, you will only receive the civility for which that office has become famous.

Yours truly,

DOG OWNER.

IRISHMAN SUICIDES

IN A TENT NEAR CALGARY.

Dependent New Arrival Makes Away
With Himself — A Native of Cork.

Calgary, May 29.—In a tent in the southwestern part of the city a young Irishman named Thomas Kingston, deliberately took his own life by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. The terrible deed was committed about five o'clock yesterday morning.

The deceased, who had but lately left his home in Ireland, arrived in Calgary about May 7, and stayed at the Immigration Hotel for four days, and then lived until yesterday with an old school friend of his named Samuel C. Wilson, in a tent in the Bankhead suburb, near Wm. Nimmon's residence.

He awoke about a quarter to five yesterday morning and, after asking his companion the time, got out of bed, and as Wilson thought, commenced dressing. A few minutes after he heard a noise in the tent, and, raising up in bed, he saw Kingston leaning against the table with blood pouring out of a great gash in his throat.

Wilson, without waiting to dress himself, ran at once for aid and called B. McPhee, a neighbor, who lives close by. When they returned three or four minutes later, they found the suicide lying outside the tent door and life was very nearly extinct.

The unfortunate man did not live over five minutes after committing the rash deed.

When seen by an Albertan reporter yesterday morning, Mr. Wilson told the following story:

"I am working for H. McPhee, a hairdresser, and live in a tent in the extreme west end of the city, near my employer's residence."

"I knew Kingston in Ireland. He came to stay with me about three weeks ago. He has not worked since he came to Calgary, just staying with me in the tent. He appeared to be in good health, or at least did not complain of being ill. I never knew of him taking anything to drink. He told me yesterday he was sorry to let his home in Ireland go. He was about thirty years old and a native of Clonsilla, County Cork, Ireland, where his mother and some brothers live. He did not appear to be dependent and I have no idea what led him to take his own life."

Coroner Hanson does not consider an inquest necessary. The body will be buried from Smith & Co's undertaking parlors at 12 o'clock today.

AN OLD TIMER GONE

Vegreville, May 29.—A deep sorrow came to the family of the late Edward Dennis, when on April 25th, 1935, he was called away. For many months he had been in failing health. The once great, stout, burly form seemed to be undermined. The fall disease seemed inch by inch to gain ascendancy. Yet through it all he worked on until early in April he took his bed from which he never again arose in life. Heart disease had laid him low.

His presence is missed not only in the home with his family but in the community. He was a hard working progressive farmer. The buildings stand today as representative of many hard knocks, and many hard days' labor.

He came to Vegreville about eleven years ago when settlers were few and far between. His men and only neighbors were Wesa, Poulin and Teireux who preceded him by about two weeks.

Mr. Dennis was a friend to the church and during his life gave to the Presbyterian church two acres of land for a church site and burying ground. His body sleeps in one of the plots of his own giving.

The large number who were present at the funeral testified as to the esteem in which he was held in the community. The service was conducted by Rev. W. E. Gold of Vegreville. He died at the age of 53, and leaves a widow and four children, viz: Frank, Glen and James Dennis, and Mrs. Geo. Smith all of Vegreville, who mourn the loss of husband and father.

WANTS NEW FILTER

SEDIMENTATION BASIN NO GOOD

Public Works Commissioner Proposes an Expenditure of $20,000 for New Engine and a Mechanical Filter.

At Friday evening's council meeting Commissioner Hargreaves presented the following report recommending the duplication of the city pumping plant at a cost of $20,000.

After discussion, Mr. Hargreaves was asked to report at next meeting as to the additional cost of extending 12 inch main from the power house to Victoria avenue.

"Re provision of duplicate pumping plant at the power house."

"It is recommended that the sum of $20,000 be provided for installation of:—

1. A triple expansion plunger pumping engine, capable of supplying 1,000 gallons per minute in new engine pit to be about 35 feet below engine room floor.

2. A mechanical pressure filter with reverse current clearing device.

3. A duplication of the present 12 inch water main from the power house as far as the new main on Saskatchewan avenue.

The advantages gained by this work would be:—

1. The certainty of water supply to the city in case of accident to the present apparatus, the city now depending on one pump and one water main.

2. The abolition of present deep well pumps which entail practically a double consumption of steam besides being a source of continual expense in repairs.

3. The abolition of the so called settling basin which now seems merely as a receiver from the deep well pumps but is of no use as a means of purifying the water. Besides there is a considerable leakage from this basin which means extra pumping.

4. The provision of pure water instead of the muddy article as is now frequently the case. This will be achieved by the provision of the proposed mechanical filter. To provide this filter it is proposed to utilize and enlarge existing material at the plant.

5. Economy of operation. It being estimated that there will result from the improvement proposed an immediate saving of repairs, etc., to deep well pumps of about $250 per annum and of some $1100 of water works share of fuel, making a saving of some $1350 per annum which will set off the interest upon the proposed plant."

N. N. Harbottle	16	22	22	60

Range totals: 206 204 177 587

As will be seen by the above, the production made lately that the 90's would soon be in evidence, was abundantly verified, the top score being a particularly good one, increasing at each range, while had Mr. Pearce not fallen off at the 600 yards, he would have had about an equal score. These scores will not only be maintained, but improved upon.

Evening practice begins this week and will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6.30.
